The image displays four distinct wood grain textures arranged in a 2x2 grid. The top-left texture is a rich, warm brown with a fine, vertical grain. The top-right texture is a similar warm brown but with a more pronounced, slightly wavy vertical grain. The bottom-left texture is a dark, charcoal grey with a vertical grain, showing some darker streaks. The bottom-right texture is a light, natural wood color with a vertical grain and visible knots.

The image shows a close-up of a wood grain texture. The top half features a dark brown, vertically oriented grain with fine, parallel lines. The bottom half shows a similar grain but with a more pronounced, wavy pattern and a slightly lighter, more textured appearance. The overall color palette is rich and earthy, ranging from deep browns to dark greys.
